A correspondent in the St. Joseph Herald has the following pleasing ac count of the Ferest City Bank robbery; Mr. Hunt informed your correspondent that the bank was robbed robbed by three men, with the assistance of a few guns and himself.

Mr. Hunt says his statement heretothe gun he carried 38 caliber, is ap-proximately correct. But for the pur-pose of getting the money in the bag quickly, the man was much nearer nine foot five, and the gun he carried resembled more nearly a Howitzer of twelve pound capacity with two touch holes.

As might be expected there is a great variety of opinion among the citizens in regard to the matter. Of course the robbers were here and had been for some days before stopped at the hotel, and it was throught by some that they intended to "summer" here. They were seen by many, some of whom knew that they were robbers, at least were very "saspicious looking characters," but for got to mention the matter until after they were come.
